ENGLISH TRAINING PROGRAMME

This training programme is especially organized for non-native English speakers who wish to upgrade their English proficiency. This aims to improve their conversational skill in English language as well as enhance their writing and reading skill in English.

The training focuses on key language skills of speaking, listening, reading and writing, and provides students with ample opportunities to use English in a variety of communicative situations. Furthermore, it also aim to guide students in improving their pronunciation, develop their vocabulary and refine their knowledge and usage of English grammar.

This training programme will be supplemented with an extensive reading activity where students will be able to select and read a set of highly interested topics that is anchored on current events, daily activities, and other relevant subjects that will broaden not only their English comprehension but also their knowledge on different field of interest.

As we believe on the advantage of technology in one's pursuit of knowledge, some sessions will be using some computer-assisted learning software. Placement test will be implemented on a case-to-case basis should we find greater disparity among students English knowledge level.
