NeoVita students have started to wear their uniforms for the training beginning this month.

Uniform sets for NeoVita

Computer Centre and NeoVita Learning Centre were introduced to answer for students request to wear uniform in the training premises. NeoVita's aim is to easily identify students amidst the growing number of people frequenting the two (2) training centres.

Students enthusiastically welcomed this. It will contribute to prim and proper appearance in training sessions. Although this is offered at an extra costs, students could save in the long run in using a uniform and they need not to worry what to wear during the training.
