

First Aid and CPR training with American Red Cross certification

NeoVita would like to announce the availability of its First Aid/CPR Training with American Red Cross certification.

Students who wanted to get certified on First Aid and CPR can now attend the two-month training being offered at NeoVita.

The training will be conducted by Mr. Aaron Chia, a certified First Aid/CPR instructor both for American Red Cross and Singapore Red Cross. He is a volunteer at Singapore Civil Defense, an avid first aid and CPR advocate and practitioner who actually runs his own First Aid/CPR training centre.

This training is a two-month duration which will be conducted through lectures, demo, return demo, and assessment of the participants.

NeoVita expects all of its caregiver training participants to benefit from this training and take full advantage of the international components of the certification that would be awarded to them.

With Nurse Teachers from reputable Singapore hospitals; hands-on training at one of the pioneers old age homes in Singapore; and a quality First Aid/CPR training, NeoVita assures that caregiver students are given the required exposure to gain the knowledge and skills in the area of Caregiving.

For further details call Tel. 65345830 / HP 91501132.

Participants will receive a two-year First Aid certification and a one-year CPR certification from American Red Cross should they finished the training and pass the necessary assessment.

2007 NeoVita Christmas Party

The annual NeoVita Christmas Party was held at its Hong Lim Complex centre last 25 Dec 2007. The students and their guests took some time-off to join the management and staff in this Christmas celebration. One of them even brought the children of her employers to join us in this celebration.

This is worth-remembering event as NeoVita's progress in celebrating Christmas since 2003. Once again, the success of the event is a sign of the students' continued support and belief on the services that NeoVita is providing them. Everyone enjoyed the parlour games and the delicious food. Most of them had voluntarily shared their best menu for the other to taste while NeoVita provided the main dishes and the chocolate fountain where everyone took their favorites fruits to dip.

The atmosphere of Christmas spirit were felt when everyone took their gifts to exchange.

FORUM page now at www.neovitagroup.com

NeoVita has recently included in its website an interactive forum page.

Students can now ask their queries online, clarified current and future class and tutorial schedules, download previous exercises and session presentations, be updated on latest offerings and most importantly, it will be a platform for students continuing education even if they are already outside of Singapore.

Forums, chat, e-commerce, blogs, online banking, and other interactive features of the internet is what we hope to expose our students. We hope this initiative can benefit further all of our training participants and students.
